How the ACA is Affecting Employers Employer Obligations- Large Group

Employer Penalties for Not Offering Required Coverage

- Minimum Essential Coverage
- Minimum Affordability
- Delayed until 2015
- Penalty amount for not offering coverage is up to $2,000 annually for each full-time employee, excluding the first 30 80 employees.
- Employers offering coverage, that is unaffordable or doe not provide minimum value, will be subject to a fine of up to $3,000 annually for each full-time employee that receives a subsidy.

Employer Responsibility

Large employers must offer full-time employees an opportunity to enroll in minimum essential coverage under an employer-sponsored plan.

What is Affordable

The employee can pay no more than 9.5% of their total household income toward the coverage of themselves.

Minimum Value

• Plan must cover at least 60% of medical expenses on average.

Employer Obligations

Employer Penalties for Not Offering Required Coverage

- Minimum Essential Coverage
- Minimum Affordability
- Delayed until 2015
- Penalty amount for not offering coverage is up to $2,000 annually for each full-time employee, excluding the first 30 80 employees.
- Employers offering coverage, that is unaffordable or doe not provide minimum value, will be subject to a fine of up to $3,000 annually for each full-time employee that receives a subsidy.

50-99 Employees

- Delayed until 2016
- Must certify that, during the period beginning February 9, 2014, and ending on the last day of the plan year that begins:
 - Has not reduced the size of its workforce or the overall hours of service of its employees so that it could qualify for this delay, and
 - Has not eliminated or materially reduced any coverage it had in effect on February 9, 2014. A material reduction means that:
 - The employer's contribution is less than what they were contributing towards on February 9, 2014.
 - A change was made to the benefits causing the plan to fall below minimum value
 - The class of employees or dependents eligible has been reduced.

100+ Employees

- Delayed until 2015
- Offer coverage to 70% of their full-time employees
 95% FT EE's in 2016
- Penalties that any large employer may face doesn't count the first 80 employees
- Beginning in 2016 employers must offer minimum essential coverage to dependent children as well as full-time employees

Non-Calendar Year Plans

- Large employers with non-calendar year plans do not have to provide coverage until the start of 2015 plan year, but the plan year effective date applies on if they meet a number of requirements. The most significant of these are:
 - The employer had a non-calendar year group health plan in place on December 27, 2012.
 - The employer has not changed the plan year since December 27, 2012, (this means that most plans that opted for early renewal are not eligible for this delay.)

• Affordable, minimum value coverage is offered to most (70%) employees as of the start of the 2015 plan year and most employees were eligible under the rules in place on February 9, 2014.

Determining if You're a Large Employer
